

Reading Matters at School: Reading Leaders

This National Open College Network accredited course provides training for Key Stage 4 and 5 students to support younger pupils in improving their reading skills and confidence. As each trained Reading Leader works with up to 6 students a year, this is a cost effective and time efficient way to significantly improve reading levels within school.

Overview

---

- A flexible, adult style training course
- Initial training of 4 hours duration tailored to fit the school day
- Accreditation Review Visit
- Can be delivered in school training/conference facilities or at an external venue
- For up to 15 participants
- Accredited training NOCN Level 2
- All training notes provided by Reading Matters
- Resource packs provided by Reading Matters
- Provides excellent experience for the Reading Leader to augment UCAS personal statement or CV and can count towards the Duke of Edinburgh scheme
- Becomes a powerful resource within school

Content

---

Experienced Reading Matters' tutors will provide training that will enable students to provide reading support to younger pupils. By the end of the course students will be able to:

- Understand how to be an effective Reading Leader and role model
- Understand our own reading strategies and their success
- Develop ideas for a one-to-one reading partnership
- Use techniques to improve reading skills

Cost

---

£995 per course - as little as £66 per head if the full number of participants takes part.

Next Steps

---

Reading Leaders training can be delivered with Key Stage 3 students – please contact Reading Matters for further information.